Copenhagen texas energy storage

As a long-term operator of solar projects, we are experienced in developing high quality projects that benefit the communities where we operate. From the very first stages of development, we remain committed to using the highest quality standards in construction, equipment, and safety. We also ensure that communities see real benefits from the project.

We procure solar panels from trusted Tier 1 manufacturers, providing greater quality and reliability.

We prioritize using local workers and materials whenever possible.

Our construction standards minimize environmental impacts and preserve local habitats.

Our projects generate millions of dollars in revenue for communities that can be invested back into local priorities like schools, roads or emergency services.

We support educational efforts in these communities including Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) programs that help develop career opportunities in the clean energy industry.

Ørsted has office locations and projects across the U.S. to support our growing business, create skilled jobs, and meet the demand for clean, reliable energy.
