

Geographic locations vatican city

Location of Vatican City

Geographic coordinates of Vatican City, Vatican

Our editors will review what you've submitted and determine whether to revise the article.

Vatican City (officially, the Vatican City State) has no administrative divisions. With an area of 0.49 sq. km, and a population of just 825 residents, Vatican City is the world's smallest independent nation-state and the residence of the spiritual leadership of the Roman Catholic Church.

Vatican is located in the south-central region of Europe, on the west banks of Tiber River. It is situated both in the Northern and Eastern hemispheres of the Earth. The territory of Vatican City is completely surrounded by Rome (Italy). It is thus an enclave of Italy.

The above blank outline map represents Vatican City, an enclave of Italy, and the world's smallest nation. The above map can be downloaded, printed, and used for map pointing work.

The above map represents the Vatican City, the world's smallest country. It is surrounded on all sides by Italy.

All maps, graphics, flags, photos and original descriptions © 2024 worldatlas

Explore this Vatican City map to learn everything you want to know about this country. Learn about Vatican City location on the world map, official symbol, flag, geography, climate, postal/area/zip codes, time zones, etc. Check out Vatican City history, significant states, provinces/districts, & cities, most popular travel destinations and attractions, the capital city's location, facts and trivia, and many more.

The Vatican City is the last remaining Catholic state; and also the only state in the world which has a religious purpose.

The Vatican City was born of the Lateran Treaty between the country of Italy and the State of the Vatican City. The Vatican City employs the famous Swiss Guards.

Economy of Vatican City : having no economy as such of its own, the Vatican City rakes in revenues out of printing, coins, medals, postage stamps, tourism, worldwide banking and financial activities.

Contact us for free full report

Geographic locations vatican city

Web: <https://kary.com.pl/contact-us/>

Email: energystorage2000@gmail.com

WhatsApp: 8613816583346

