A share represents part-ownership of a company. So, when you own shares in a company, you own a portion of that company.

As a shareholder you can vote on company matters and get a slice of any profits paid out by the company.

Discover more with our beginners guide to investing in shares.

The price movement of a share is driven by the balance between the number of people wanting to buy or sell at any given time. This is known as supply and demand and linked to investors' views on the company's future prospects.

There are three charges to consider before buying UK shares.

The UK stock market is open for trading between 8am and 4.30pm on most business days. The only exceptions to this are the last working days before Christmas and the New Year, when the stock market closes at 12.30pm.

n These allow our website to work properly and gives us anonymouse information about how the website is used.n

n You'll see tailored adverts. If you turn these off, you will still see adverts but they may not be relevant to your interests.n

2. Select the share you want to buy and check our charges.
