We recommend looking for an SEAI approved solar panel company as this is one that has been trained and accredited by the Sustainable Energy Authority of Ireland (SEAI). This means that they are fully certified by the government body to come and install your solar panels for you.

You also can benefit from the SEAI solar panel grant if you use an approved installer, with grant amounts of up to EUR2,100 available.

The list doesn't just cover solar panels, but a full range of different environmental and renewable energy products that some companies might do together. These include:

The list includes services, names, phone numbers and email addresses of all the approved solar panel companies. You can also find a solar panel company that will help you with any solar panel repairs or solar panel batteries or finding replacement components for your solar panels.

What services a solar panel company in Ireland will provide will depend on the company, however most companies will provide the following services:

One of the great benefits of solar panels is that you can avail of the government's microgeneration scheme and sell excess solar energy produced by your panels back into the national grid, thereby further reducing your home energy bills.

If you have found some companies in your area and are still not sure which to choose, we recommend asking them the following questions to help you compare and make the right choice.
