

Nextera energy scam

Nextera energy scam

At NextEra Energy and FPL, our relationship with our valued third-party suppliers and contingent workers is critical to us and we want to help you stay cybersmart. We would like to share reminders and best practices that will help you keep an eye out for suspicious behavior.

If you think you have received an email that is not legitimate, follow these do's and don'ts:

Ahora la informaci?n que necesitas sobre tu servicio el?ctrico est? disponible en espa?ol en FPL .

We are an industry-leading company, focused on innovation, customer value and energy solutions.

Find your next career with America's leading sustainable energy company.

Although most emails you receive throughout the day are safe, it's important that you be on the lookout for phishing emails. Phishing emails are designed to appear trustworthy, familiar and legitimate, but are actually malicious, often containing links or attachments that will cause harm or compromise sensitive information on the company's network. Phishing attacks continue to evolve and are one of the greatest security threats impacting organizations today.

Because it's everyone's responsibility to protect our company from cyber incidents, please review and keep in mind the following tips to help identify phishing emails before they cause harm:

For more cybersecurity tips, best practices and ways to safeguard yourself at work, at home and while traveling, please visit eWeb/Cybersecurity or eWeb/Phishing.

Please note: NextEra Energy and our affiliate companies never ask for money or payments from applicants at any point during the recruiting or hiring process.

Scams often appear professional, so prospective job applicants should research the legitimacy of any job posting communication to avoid becoming a victim.

Examples of employment scams include:

The most obvious signs that a prospective offer is a scam:

Contact us for free full report

Web: <https://kary.com.pl/contact-us/>

Nextera energy scam

Email: energystorage2000@gmail.com

WhatsApp: 8613816583346

