A business communications specialist, Timurmali Elmurodov, said that another important point is that Brand Finance, when evaluating brands from different countries, usually does not just make one table as it did in the case of Uzbekistan, but publishes a multi-page document with comments and explanations. There is no such document regarding Uzbekistan's brands.

"Given all this, I wouldn't recommend taking this list too seriously. Someday Brand Finance will definitely make a full-fledged and reasoned rating of brands in Uzbekistan, but for now, this is how it is," the expert said.
