Varta company

VARTA announces commercial agreement on reorganisation concept Our aim is to provide VARTA AG Group with a sustainable perspective through the ongoing reorganisation, thus safeguarding jobs and value creation in Germany as well as preserving the key technology of the battery. The agreement is an important step towards securing the stability of the company.

VARTA: Future based on tradition.

Whether on Fridtjof Nansen's North Pole expedition or on the moon with Neil Armstrong - VARTA has been where passion, reliability and energy turn the future into the present for over 130 years. Today VARTA offers a wide product portfolio of future-oriented energy solutions. From micro and household batteries to customer-specific lithium-ion batteries, to house and industrial storage systems.

In den 2000er Jahren, wurde das Batteriegeschäft der ehemaligen VARTA AG aufgespalten und an die neuen Eigentümer Montana Tech Components AG und Clarios verkauft.
